205 Athletes, Countless Hours, One Big Buzz: National Games Prep is in Full Swing

The Dwarf Sports Association UK team have been all hands on deck as preparations ramp up for the National Games 2026, with excitement building ahead of what promises to be a fantastic event. With 205 competitors set to take part, planning is well underway to ensure every athlete, team, and supporter has an unforgettable experience.

Behind the scenes, scheduling is progressing at pace, with event timetables, venues, and logistics carefully being brought together. From team sports fixtures to individual event coordination, the organising team are working tirelessly to make sure everything runs smoothly across the Games.

Recent behind-the-scenes photos show one of the many key preparation stages already in motion bibs being carefully prepared and organised for the team sports. It's these detailed steps, happening long before the opening ceremony, that help bring the National Games to life and ensure every competitor is ready to take their place on the start line.
